Curriculum

In KS3, pupils have seven lessons of English during the academy's two week timetable. One of these lessons will involve the class visiting the academy library, to encourage reading and a full participation in support of the Accelerated Reader scheme. Pupils also have a drama lesson to enhance the KS3 schemes of work, delivered within a specific learning environment and we are fortunate enough to have a drama specialist within our team. This year we have launched our 'Let's Think in English' lessons based on research and training from King's College London. The setting arrangements support the policy of the academy and the pupils are organised into halves across each year group, then into academic sets.

In KS4, pupils are taught in ability sets and have eight / nine lessons of English during the fortnight. All pupils study English Language and English Literature GCSE following the Edexcel specification. At post 16, the department currently offers AQA English Language GCE, OCR English Literature GCE, EDUQAS Film Studies GCE and BTEC Media Studies.
